Highlights

Lemonade on the Lawn takes place today after the service. Come join us for fellowship time out on the front lawn by Chicago Avenue. Roy Hall will be used in case of inclement weather.

The church building and offices will be closed Monday, July 3, and Tuesday, July 4, for the Independence Day holiday.

Book Club will be meeting 1:30-3 pm on Tuesday, July 18, in the Parlor. We will be reading A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles. It's the story of Count Alexander Ilyich Rostov, a Russian aristocrat sentenced to house arrest for his association with a poem with revolutionary overtones. While imprisoned during the onset of Communism, he witnesses the changes in government and society. All are welcome!

Vacation Bible School registration is now open online! Join us at the Maker Fun Factory as we discover that we were created by God and built for a purpose. We'll meet at church July 24-28, from 9-11:45 am, to learn Bible stories, play games, create projects, and learn how God wants us to be involved in our world. Children who will enter 3-year-old preschool through 6th grade in the fall of 2017 are invited to participate. Learn more and register online through our website at <http://www.firstpresevanston.org/events/event-registration/>.
